

Finding a job despite COVID

Objectives of the workshop

This workshop is aimed at all those who are currently looking for a job in Luxembourg or who are considering a change of position or employer. In the first part, participants will learn to better understand the labour market and to understand the needs of employers. In a second step they will learn to rework their application to better meet the expectations of recruiters and to prepare to be able to be convincing during a job interview by video conference.

The situation of the labour market

Some key figures

Employers' expectations and skills in demand

- Technical skills
- Generic skills

The main players

Temp agencies and recruitment agencies

Employers

What has changed since the Covid pandemic?

Finding job opportunities or discovering the hidden part of the iceberg

Classic ways

Job market watch and direct approach

How to structure your candidacy to meet the expectations of recruiters

- Agencies
- Employers

The electronic Resume

Structure

- Chronological Resume
- Resume by competencies

Form of the Resume

- Which model to choose?

Content (Essential Information)

- Personal Data
- Picture - yes or no?
- Work experience
- Trainings and diplomas
- Other activities

How to prepare a relevant description of competencies and/or tasks

Use skills and competencies acquired outside work to uplift your profile

How to effectively prepare for the job interview (by video conference)

Practical preparation

- Organize your space (camera position, lighting, background, etc.)
- Installation of software and practical test (Zoom, Teams, etc.)

Preparing the content of the interview

- How to prepare your pitch
- The most common questions
- How to prepare for a competency-based interview
- Questions to prepare for the recruiter

We share with the participants examples of "best practice" but also examples of bloopers and funny moments.

Practical terms

Date: Thursday, April 15 from 2 p.m. to 5 p.m.

This participatory seminar will take place via ZOOM. The number of places is limited.

Registration

Registrations are made by email at info@competence-asbl.com.

Registration will be confirmed when the participation fee of EUR 100, - TTC has been paid into the association's bank account CCPLULL LU92 1111 7021 7488 0000.